President Maria Capaldo called the meeting to order at 1:30 p.m. in Frances Young Hall. She welcomed all and suggested not to hold back watering our gardens during this dry winter. She began announcements while the new projector was being set up. She introduced Heidi Husnak, the Show and Sale Co-Chair.

Annual Show and Sale: Heidi reminded us of the annual Show & Sale on April 7th and 8th. Sign-up sheets were by the membership table. Club members are encouraged to sign up for an hour or so to be a general helper at the Show and help guide visitors. Extra help may be needed in the kitchen. Maria said set-up for the Show will start on Friday, the 6th at 12:00 pm. Displaying a plant on the Club Show Table can add up to four points to member's overall Mini-show score. A point for each plant displayed. There is a sign-up sheet for members to bring food. Heidi added that the "Kid Planting Station" will be in the Courtyard. Small plastic pots and soil donations are needed. Maria talked about the Club Sale Table. Please bring in extra plants from your yard and drop them off at the next meeting or at Maria's home if you prefer. The Club will be placing labels and prices on the plants on Friday during the set-up.

Program: Jade introduced speaker Greg Krehel, a former Palos Verdes resident now residing in Florida. He is a self-proclaimed "Echinopsis Freak" (check out his website: www.EchinopsisFreak.com). Greg describes himself as an "enthusiast"—not a "professional." His presentation was entitled "Freaky Flowers: Echinopsis Flowers in Bloom," which showed the stunning beauty of these bright flowers in time-lapse photography. The plants were showcased with short stills, forming a "film" of about 2,000 individual shots displaying multiple blooms opening and sometimes, up through the wilting process. Greg has to guess when a plant may be ready to bloom before setting up to film overnight. Sometimes he has more plants ready for overnight filming than he can handle with his three cameras set up in his bathroom darkroom. You can contact him at Greg@echinopsis.com.

Announcements before the break:

Maria asked our speaker, Greg, to help judge and announce the Mini-show winners with Phyllis DeCrescenzo, Marie Bowers and Clif Wong assisting.

Anita Caplan told us that more postcards advertising the April Show and Sale are available. Please give them out to neighbors, friends and family.

Heidi picked Bill Osmun to help pick names for free plants.

The President recessed the meeting at 2:30 p.m. for refreshments, plant sales, and the rest of the Mini-show judging.
